SEND Friendly and Disability Led providers

Assess Education

We will be offering a programme of activities for children with autism and SEN throughout the half term break. We have a qualified therapist available for the duration of the club and all children are assigned their own one to one carer who is trained in SEN support. Places are subsidised by funding through the LA but as we are Ofsted registered parents can also apply for child tax credits. We aim to support children in their social development and help them to be more independent. Hot and cold meals can be provided on site, including breakfast, lunch and snacks with any dietary requirements catered for. Our day consists of outdoor activities (weather permitting) learning through play, trips out and messy play but for those children who need a quiet space we have a dedicated room for relaxing.

Glory Worship Church Liverpool

Families, parent, legal guardians! Stressed about what you are going to do with the kids this half term? Never fear - Glory Worship Church is Here! We are here to invite you to our 4-day event this half-term. We are looking for ways to engage the children this month and avoid getting into trouble. Whether it's the terrible twos or the moody teenage or the shy toddler we have an activity for EVERYONE. Here are the 4 activities we have going on the half - term week; Monday 25th October Culture Cook Part 2 Following on from our first Culture Cookout, we receive a lot of positive feedback from both parents and children. We believe that the children fully grasped the difference we highlighted in our classes. The children also really understood the origin of some of the ingredients we used and appreciated what constitutes healthy meals. Due to the number of praises we received, we are hoping to attract more family's to part take in this activity again. Tuesday 26th October Video editing This event is targeted at teenagers who are interested in Media. Picking subjects for college or university isn't easy when you don't know what you are getting involved in. Likewise, for those who want to learn or pick a new skill, we want to give them Basic 101 in video editing. With access to industry-standard equipment and the help of experts in the field, we hope to give each attendee an opportunity to join us in this taster session. This can also be beneficial for CVS and job applications. Thursday 27th October 2021 Paint and Sip This activity is open to all who wish to be creative. Our paint and sip activity allows friends and individuals to come and be inspired and draw. We are big supporters of creativity so what better way can we encourage youth than by providing a blank canvas. We hope to provide bottomless drinks and live entertainment. Saturday 29th October 2021 Get fit with Zumba. Who said you can't have fun while exercising. We are looking to bring in a fresh vibrant Zumba instructor to lead a number of sessions open to all ALL members both young and old. Bring your dance shoes and your water bottles. What are you waiting for? Want to be involved? Save your space now by filling in our online form. We hope that you will be a part of this awesome jam-packed week. The kids are buzzing about it and so should you! Register TODAY!

Liverpool FC Foundation

Multi Activity provision for 4-18 year olds

We will deliver across a number of sites at varying times

The LFC Foundation, October half-term programme will aim to support, educate and empower young people throughout the local community. We will provide free breakfast, lunch and dinner to young people participating within a wide range of engaging activity. Firstly, the Kicks Camps will be able to feed an estimated 320 young people aged 5 – 16 at two specific sites these being Anfield

Sports and Community Centre and Tiber Street. Throughout the programme, young people will be participating in football training while working on several personal development skills such as communication, teamwork, self-esteem and confidence. Coinciding with this, the PL Kicks Targeted programme will aim to work with 15 –20 young people who have been referred into programme by secondary schools, Merseyside Police and Youth Offending Team. Throughout the week there will be a total of five educational workshops which will aim to stretch and challenge young people out of their comfort zone focusing on team building, first aid, nutrition importance, bike safety and maintenance. Coinciding with this, due to October being Black History month, participants will also be attending the Maritime Museum to be educated on the culture, arts and history of transatlantic slavery. Furthermore, in preparation to Mischief Night on Friday 29th of September, the programme will be supported by Merseyside Police educating young people on the dangers and impact being involved in ASB has on the wider community. After each workshop, fun activation will occur which will provide young people the opportunity to engage in activities which they may not be able to participate in due to limitations at home, such as rock climbing, tunnel tours and LFC stadium tour. The Works programme will aim to provide young people the opportunity to become involved in employability and personal development workshops throughout the week. We aim through the developed workshops and external opportunities young people, will develop skills such as confidence, communication and time management. Through the developed curriculum we aim that young people will be educated and feel empower to identify further training, educational course or employment opportunities. Overall, we aim that the provisions will stretch and challenge all, but specifically the funding will allow young people to gain nutritional intake each day, either within breakfast, snacks and lunches. All curriculum we aim will raise student aspirations and motivation to achieve, alongside gaining insight into the importance of healthy lifestyle.

Music/Creative Arts provision for 7-11 year olds

Luma Creations supports and works primarily with refugees and asylum seekers, the over 50s, the Latin American Community, as well as young people, the local Liverpool 8 community, and BAMER communities across Merseyside. Our mission is to focus on working face-to-face to engage with marginalised communities from ethnically diverse and socio-economically deprived backgrounds, making a difference to people's lives, strengthening resilience and the sense of self-worth. We produce new work; create events and deliver projects, festivals and creative-based learning workshops; offer training and research to promote and celebrate the creative case for diversity in the arts and the community. The October half-term programme will consist of daily creative-learning activity workshops in the disciplines of dance, music, creative writing and arts/crafts, building upon the highly successful summer HAF activities. Delivered by highly experienced artists and workshop leaders, each day will have a mixture of the above disciplines, which over the four days of the week focus on: personal development; skills/knowledge development; exploration of own and others' cultures; physical hand, eye and body coordination activities; self and group working. One session of every week will be given over to the understanding and exploration of basic food and nutrition facts across different cultures, which are put into practice through the creation of a meal preparation and family sharing activity.

Rice Lane Community Association \(Rice Lane City Farm\)

Rice Lane City Farm will be pleased once again to host a half term week of activities and meals between Monday 25th October and Friday 29th. The Farm opens at 10am every day of the year. and entry is free. We are a fully accessible site and have catered for SEND children. We already have challenging volunteers, who help doing tasks around the site. Every day during the October half term holiday there will be two strands of activities, physical and creative. On our 24 acre site there are many ways to explore, see different kinds of nature, both animal and vegetable. We also have a small playground with climbing frame and bridge, suitable for under 10's. During the COVID crisis school holidays, we have served hot and cold lunches for children free every day. Our team of volunteers cook up a variety of different hot and cold lunches, something for all tastes and allergies. The feedback from earlier school breaks was very positive, without any complaints of quality or quantity. The physical strand of activities will include skipping, ball games, playing with hoops, treasure trails, collecting leaves and flowers and finding the famous people who are on the Farm permanently! Creative activities will involve painting, drawing chalk pictures, tree bark rubbing and drawing farm scenes. We expect to have a resident story teller, and possible musician who can lead some singing. We have an outdoor, forest school area, which will be in use during the October break. There will be a mixture of volunteers and staff running activities, all tuned to look after children safely, and send them home happy and possibly a little tired?

Team Oasis

Established in 2003 with the aim of offering inclusive opportunities for children and young people of all abilities and circumstances to engage together in a variety of activities and projects. We believe that promoting activities that engage children/youngsters in exciting, adventurous activities with others that might have a particular disability bares much universal fruit. Friendships blossom, mutual respect abounds and of course we like to think that we have a major impact on diverting young people away from the prevalent negative influences that can make it so difficult for young people these days. We always go the extra mile for our participants. Therefore, our October Holiday club is not for five days. It is for a full nine days with mega weekends full of brilliant activities in addition to our Monday to Friday schedule.
